

Lit. Themes

January 6 - 10

Monday, January 6th

No
School
For Students
SIP DAY

Tuesday, January 7th

Objectives: Students will be able to meet the teacher's expectations as well as their own for a successful second semester.

Agenda:

- Welcome back!
- 2nd Semester Overview
- Review Rules and Expectations
- Goal-setting
 - New year = New you

Wednesday, January 8th

Objectives: Students will be able to use rhetorical strategies and devices to create a persuasive argument.

Agenda:

- Put your phone in the Cell Phone Parking Lot
- The Donut Challenge!
 - Use your powers of persuasion to get the judges to award your group donuts!

Thursday, January 9th

Objectives: Students will be able to identify the rhetorical strategies and devices author's and speakers use in the writing.

Agenda:

- Advise & Sign Options
 - Be ready tomorrow!
- Notes and Discussion on Ethos, Pathos, and Logos

Friday, January 10th

Objectives: Students will be able to think about and discuss the power of words and the emotions, as well as positive and negative connotations, that certain words can evoke.

Agenda:

- Advise & Sign Conference
- A Raisin in the Sun - Self-guided Notes
 - Go to Mrs. Manzella's webpage > www.d131.org > Students > Find a teacher > Manzella > teacher site > Raisin Notes
- Dream Deferred poem analysis

