

For Students with Special Education Needs:

Parents, please have your child complete half of the math problems on each practice sheet and half of the questions related to the reading passages (Your child can choose which of the questions to complete as long as they complete half). There are also multiple support reference documents to help students complete the activities at their individual learning level for math and vocabulary definitions for reading.